A NEWSLETTER OF OXFORD FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Rev. Roger Wilson, Pastor

Volume 23, Number 9, September 2023

To God Be the Glory!

We are all familiar with that wonderful song: To God be the glory, for the Things He has done. That is where we, the members of Oxford First UMC, find ourselves at this time. We had been praying for a church van for some time now, and God certainly provided. Look at the beautiful van pictured here. It just shows that if you keep praying, keep believing, and keep the faith, God will give you what you need. We want to thank everyone for their efforts in making this happen, but mostly we want to give all the Thanks, all the Glory and all the Praise to the Man above. Amen.

“Morning Doves”

The Morning Doves are having a good time working with 6th to 12th grade girls who want to love God and love themselves. It’s a community-girls watch. So please contact Tressie Johnson at 662-801-7492 if you want to be a part of the team. Here are images from their meetings.

Welcome September

New month, new chapter, new page and new wishes.

May the month give you courage, strength, Confidence, patience, self-love & inner peace. May everyday in September fill your days with Hope, love, sunshine and energy. Let there be Joy, Fun and Laughter.

Sunday School: The Entire Bible in One Year

If you've been looking for the perfect time to join our Sunday School, that time is now. This year, the September quarter of Direction, our Sunday School booklet, begins a four-part series that will guide you in reading the entire Bible in one year. To that end, please take full advantage of this substantive offering provided to you by getting on board from the start with the 1st Sunday in September, starting with Genesis. Join us as we grow in the Word of God together.
