

Two Burns/Hammitt Youth Honored

by Barbara Wortham

Two of our Burns/Hammitt Hill youth were named students of the month (SOM) by the Oxford Intermediate School's (OIS) Renaissance Committee for the month of February 2016. According to the OIS website, students are selected for this honor for making a positive impact at school through leadership skills and going above and beyond the call of duty.

Ty Campbell, an 11 year old 5th grader, was chosen by the Renaissance Committee for his excellent example to other students. Ty is the son of Dureyea and Sherrita Campbell.

He said that he felt that he was chosen for this honor because of his good behavior. Ty says that it was awesome to be named SOM. He also stated that he was shocked to be recognized by his church family. Ty's favorite subject is Math because he likes working with numbers. He also enjoys P.E. Ty can be seen playing the drums in church for the Inspirational and Children/Youth Choirs.

Keetan Phillips was also honored as a 6th grade SOM. Keetan is the son of Tosha and Patrick Lyons. He is also the big brother of Greek and Emory. Keetan states that it felt good to be named a Student of the Month. He thinks he was chosen because of his behavior and good grades. Keetan's favorite subject is Math because he is good at it. He liked being recognized by his church because everybody knows who he is. Keetan hopes to become part of the school basketball team. He participates in the choir and is an acolyte in the church.

Burns/Hammitt Hill is proud of our young men who were caught being good!

Resurrection Sunday

Resurrection Sunday Worship was a reminder of how we can apply Jesus' life here on earth to our everyday lives. Worship was led by our children and youth. The Word from Pastor Diggs: "A Psychological Crucifixion" was from MARK 14:56-58. The following are points he raised:

- Crucifixion: bearing someone on a cross, WATCHing them die (suffer) slowly.

Some folks want to see you suffer.

- If you're not doing anything in life, folk won't bother you; but whenever you try to do better, you might as well get ready. When people try to assassinate your character, you are in good company. They did the same thing to Jesus.

- A psychological crucifixion cuts to the core. There is not a doctor that can help you when you've been hurt psychologically.

Two points:

1) They lied on Jesus. (v. 56-58) People will lie on you. You don't have to do anything to anybody for people to lie on you and make up things about you.

2) They mocked Jesus (LUKE 23:35). People will mock you. Go through something, and you will find out who your friends are. People will make you feel like you have no self-worth. That's part of a psychological crucifixion.

Sometimes we feel God has forgotten about us. That is not the case at all. He said He would never leave us nor forsake us.
