Let Us Break Bread Together

by Minister Laura Gillom

Another step was made towards the merging of two congregations into one strong body on Saturday, July 25th, as Burns and Hammitt Hill United Methodist Charge converged on Avent Park for the 2015 Charge Picnic. This year's theme was "Let Us Break Bread Together." Approximately 75 members and friends attended for a time of food, fun, music, and fellowship. From the youngest to the oldest, the laughter and smiling faces were indications that a good time was had by all .

Burns & Hammitt Hill UMC Revival

Burns and Hammitt Hill UMC will have its annual revival on August 24-26, 2015. Our theme is "Work on Me!" The scripture for the week comes from Phillipians 1:6, "And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ." The guest evangelist for the week will be Rev. Forrest Dickey of the Townsley Chapel AME Church in Macon, GA. Please be in prayer for a successful revival.
