

Pastor's Appreciation Program

Oxford First UMC held its Pastor's Appreciation program on Sunday, October 27, 2024, for Pastor Roger Wilson and First Lady Yolanda. The program was emceed by Dr. Phyllis George. This was the day that OFUMC learned that Phyllis could sing as she led the congregation in her rendition of "Break Every Chain." Pastor Will Owens, of New Beginnings M.B.

Church, was the speaker for the day. The church showed their love and appreciation for the Wilsons with many gifts, both physical and financial. Trinity Herron and little Carlee Manning blessed the congregation with Praise dances. Afterward, everyone came together for a delicious fellowship meal of fried fish and chicken. These pictures are from the event.

Laity Sunday Service

On Laity Sunday, October 20, 2024, our very own, Barbara Wortham delivered the Lay Sermon, "How To Be Great," using the scripture: Mark 10:35-45.

2024 OFUMC Annual Hayride

After 4th Sunday service many members of OFUMC gathered at the home of James and Minnie Milliner for the Annual Church Hayride. As the pictures show games, food and fun was enjoyed by all.

“God said, I got you!”

On October 13, 2024, Rhonda Miller gave her heartfelt testimony to the church as a breast cancer survivor. Her entire testimony was one of faith. At every stage of her cancer journey, she kept repeating one phrase: “God said, I got You!”
